WILL ASK PRESIDENT ELIOT WHY THAW LEFT HARVARD; SLAYER DENIES EXPULSION

Commission Will Inquire Into Hitherto Untold Story of College Escapades.

MANY SWEAR HE'S SANE.

Canadians Tell of His Actions After Escape and Pronounce Him Rational.

Deputy Attorney General Frank K. Cook announced at the opening of this afternoon's session of the Thaw case that he would apply to the court for an order to examine the president of Harvard University concerning Thaw's expulsion from the university in 1892.

"I understand Harry Thaw was called into President Eliot's office at noon one day and told to leave the university and to be out by 3 o'clock that afternoon. This, so far as I have been able to find out, Thaw did."

The escapade which caused Thaw's dismissal from Harvard has never been made public.

Thaw had been a year and a half in Harvard at that time, according to Mr. Cook. He was taking a course in special subjects. President Emeritus Eliot is at present in Cambridge, Mass.

WANTS TO KNOW WHY THAW WAS EXPELLED.

Mr. Cook said he wished to find out why Thaw was expelled from Harvard. He said he was called into President Eliot's office and what was said to him while there.

When Thaw was asked, "Why were you expelled from Harvard?" he replied: "I never was expelled."

Before the calling of witnesses was begun this afternoon one of the jury members handed up to Justice Hendrick a letter he said had been received from a crank. The court smiled and said: "Just hand me any more of these letters which come. I get scores of them during the course of an important trial."

Witness after witness took the stand before Justice Hendrick to-day and swore that from personal observation they believed Harry K. Thaw was perfectly sane and that his actions were those of a rational man.

That Thaw, however, faces a bitter fight before he can ever win his freedom was shown when the State announced it would call him as the chief witness against himself. His aged mother, too, will be used against him. She may even be forced to take the witness stand. The State will first at-

SWINDLERS SENTENCED.

Four Plead Guilty to Using Mails to Defraud.

After being on trial for three days in the Criminal Branch of the Federal District Court, Adolf Jacobson, his son William, and Julius Cohn to-day entered pleas of guilty to an indictment charging them with engaging in a conspiracy to defraud through the mails.

Judge Harland P. Howe sentenced Adolf Jacobson, who is sixty-four years of age, to serve a term of seven years' imprisonment in the United States Penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga.; gave William Jacobson a five-year term and William Cohn a year and a day's incarceration in the same institution. C. C. Mitchell, another of the conspirators, who also admitted his guilt, was let off with a fine of $100, which was paid.

CARNIVALE SENT UP FOR 20 YEARS; HISSES THREATS

Instigator of Giamari Murder Warns Relative of Victim in Court.

Muttering imprecations against his prosecutors and his accusers, Rocco Carnivale, alias "Rocco Cornell," convicted of murder in the second degree for instigating the murder of Michael Giamari, one of Tom Foley's lieutenants, was this afternoon sentenced to Sing Sing Prison for not less than twenty years by Supreme Court Justice Vernon M. Davis.

As Carnivale, manacled to a deputy sheriff, was led down the aisle of the courtroom on his way to the Tombs he suddenly stopped and peering into the face of his victim's brother Albert hissed:

"You will be the next, then your brother John and Mike Santangelo."

The deputy sheriff had to drag Carnivale away.

"There's no yellow in me," Carnivale told his guard, "and what I said I mean."

"What have you to say why judgment should not be passed upon you?" Clerk Penny asked Carnivale when brought before the Justice.

The prisoner started to say something when Mr. Stryker bade him keep quiet.

As Justice Davis imposed the statutory sentence Carnivale listened attentively with a smile on his face. He will be taken to Sing Sing to-morrow.

Carnivale is the second convicted for Giamari's murder. Gaetano Montimagno, the actual slayer, was convicted of murder in the first degree and now awaits death in the electric chair. Frank Fenimore, a Brooklyn saloonkeeper, indicted with Carnivale and Montimagno, is in the Tombs awaiting trial.

Michael A. Rofrano, Deputy Street Cleaning Commissioner, whose name was dragged into the case, resigned after the conviction of Carnivale, saying that he had been fully cleared by the testimony.

GERMAN SUBMARINES COULD RAID NEW YORK

Munich Newspaper Says That in Going to Dardanelles They Travelled 5,000 Miles.

THE HAGUE, June 24.—A Munich despatch to-day quoted the newspaper Neueste Nachrichten as pointing out that the distance a German submarine travelled in going to the Dardanelles was 5,000 miles, whereas the distance from Bremen to New York is only 3,600 miles.

"This," the newspaper was quoted as saying, "is an undisputed warning to the United States that in event of America making war on Germany, German submarines are ready to cross the Atlantic and torpedo American men-of-war. We hope the news will make the war party in America think twice."

7 GERMAN SUBMARINES PASSED GIBRALTAR INTO MEDITERRANEAN SEA.

TOKIO, June 24.—Official reports having been received from Rome that seven German submarines have successfully entered the Mediterranean through the Strait of Gibraltar, the Japanese companies have issued warnings to all steamers traversing the Mediterranean and also to extend war insurance on vessels from Marseilles to Port Said.

ONE-MINUTE KISS? IT CAN'T BE DONE, DECLARES DOCTOR

Miss Mina Tempest Too Nervous, He Says, at Robertson Divorce Trial.

SHE TELLS HER STORY.

Declares That in 14 Years She Never Kissed Mr. Robertson Even Platonically.

The defense that Miss Mina Tempest was too nervous and hysterical to give Edward F. Robertson, millionaire importer, the one-minute kiss decreed yesterday by witnesses, was raised to-day before the jury trying Mrs. Laurien C. Robertson's suit for divorce in Justice Delahanty's part of the Supreme Court.

Dr. Oscar M. Leiser, No. 263 West Forty-fifth Street, for eight years physician to Miss Tempest, furnished the testimony showing how impossible it would have been for a woman of her temperament to sit in a window still, seven stories above the street and imprint sixty-second kisses on Robertson's lips while he in great ecstasy swung his arms like Sousa leads his band.

Counsel for Mrs. Robertson tried hard to bar the physician's testimony. Justice Delahanty allowed it. Miss Tempest was overjoyed at the court's ruling. She clasped her gloved hands and nudged two friends sitting beside her.

"It would have been impossible for Miss Tempest to commit the act complained of," said Dr. Leiser. "When she called me seven years ago I found her in a highly nervous state, very hysterical, due to an operation performed by Dr. McCosh, head surgeon of the Presbyterian Hospital."

"Her condition was such that I ordered her to the European Spas. It would have been impossible, and is now impossible, for Miss Tempest to be unduly affectionate. It would do her irreparable injury."

Q. She couldn't even kiss a man—is that right? A. Anything that would tend to excite or throw her into hysterics would prove very injurious.

Q. Then you say that no woman nervous and hysterical like Miss Tempest could make love—is that right? A. Not all women are affected in the same way.

While Miss Tempest was telling her own story on the witness stand, Gustav Lang Jr., Mrs. Robertson's lawyer, asked Justice Delahanty to order that Miss Tempest submit to physical examination by Mrs. Robertson's physician, Max Steiner, Miss Tempest's counsel, characterized it as "an outrageous suggestion." Finally, Miss Tempest agreed to the ordeal, providing that her own physician, Dr. Forbes Hawkes of the Presbyterian Hospital, were present. Just as Delahanty ordered and, at Miss Tempest's request the hour was set for 3 o'clock.

FIRST JAMAICA RACE ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF BAD STARTING

JAMAICA RACE TRACK, L. I., June 24.—Bad starts have been the all important topic of race-gazers recently. Favorites have been beaten day in and day out at the post almost now the subject has become almost an obsession with those who can see no reason why favorites should be beaten, with all things equal. The first race of the day here furnished a continuation of the complaint of the methods employed in getting the fields away from the barrier.
